

About The Biltmore School

Operating since 1926, The Biltmore School is the oldest private schools in Miami Dade County. We have been providing guidance to children through a tradition of excellence in education for over 90 years.

If you want the best for your child, look no further, you are on the right page. We welcome students from 12 months to 8th grade from all over Miami and the world, contact us today.